Janice and family,

I'm so sorry for your loss, but reading other comments, I know your dear loved one is standing in the presence of Jesus. I didn't know her personally but I've got a Holy Ghost witness within, telling me she was a beautiful and giving soul. I know Janice and Janice is a sweet and sincere person....must run in the genes. I know it's hard to lose a Mom...I've been there....but what hope we all have in Jesus.....because we know we'll see that precious loved one again. My thoughts and prayers are with you all. God bless.

Mrs. Martin was the sweetest person. I remember buying clothes in Briar Patch from her. She was kind, considerate, and always so helpful. Can't find that today. To Mrs. Martin's family, I will be praying for y'all. Thanks for sharing her beautiful picture!

To Alice's Daughters: So sorry for your loss. She was very active in our church and had a prayer ministry like no other. She ministered to women in jail for many, many years. You were both very good to your mom and she loved you so much. "Absent from the body, present with the Lord."
