“ Sending my condolences to Tena's family and all that loved her. I know there are no words to ease the pain in your hearts that comes with loss of a loved one. Tena was so kind to me when I went to work for her mom and always had a kind word to say when I'd see her afterward. She will be sadly missed by many, but take comfort in knowing she will live forever in your hearts and minds. May God comfort you through this heartbreaking time. God bless you all.

“ Although, at first, when I was introduced to Ms. Brasseaux; I assumed that I had already known her. While not long after meeting this soft-spoken, well tempered, classy young lady I come to realize I didn't know her after all, but thru brief conversation spells made aware that we knew of the same ppl in outer cycles of the close knit ppl we associated with. I must admit & truly regret not knowing this special lady for long at all, but trust me, thru her fast paced stories of days gone by not too long ago from now...it seemed/felt I've known her for quite some years. Again, I honestly wish I could have shared an honest open friendship with her because she had that certain persona, quality character trait, demeanor, sarcastic snazz about herself, most certainly that quality, warm, friendly voice as well as the eloquent face to back it up...she just was one of those types of ppl that you enjoyed being around. I will close my condolences with this, & as the saying goes, "True friendship is so difficult because there will come a moment in y'all friendship relationship that you will be forced to do & say & even to the point, force to do some positive things to your friends that they at that point in their life are unable to do for themselves. True friends DO NOT under any circumstances or situation intice, promote, induce, encourage, condone, or participate in the negativity of less than desirable acts illegally with said friend. Simplified: {If your interest is not in their best interest...than maybe it's time your say-so called friend find themselves another bank to deal with}. Rest In Peace...Tena, for your God very well knows you are waaaay better off now than when you allowed yourself to be held in bondage by your very own self. You are a beautiful specially chosen person & it literally breaks my heart to hear you left us. Heaven's Angels are glad to have a permanent resident such as you.
