“ aden greek I,Il miss you enjoyed working with you the few times i was fortunate to be around aden he was good people and and me being younger i felt honered to be able to work with such a good brickmason / refractory mason . not even three weeks ago we worked together at muller copper in fulton ms. aden was smoking in the unit and the plant manager noticed and chewed our ass but after the plant mngr left we had a good laugh when we were leaving he left his coat in the plant setting his tool box down and walking back towards the plant . I picked his tool box up along with all my tools and carried it to the front gate and as it was hurting my arm and was heavy as could be I thought to my self one day ill want help getting my tools out to the truck and when we got to our vehicles aden thanked me and said see you later . and thats how ill honer him by being a good mentor to the trade whats left of it and remembering that last job we were on keep the beer cold aden well see ya soon ...Andrew Read Bricklayer and allied craftwoke local 15 mo. 816-226-3295

“ Amy, Dustin, and family, I wish that there were more than just words to express my sorrow for your loss. I can't begin to know the pain, but please know that there are MANY THOUGHTS and PRAYERS sent your way. May God's love surround and comfort you and give you strength now and throughout the times ahead...

“ Aden will be missed by all have known him. We had a special relationship both having children the same age and we talked about many things over the years. One thing we discussed is the relationship we have with God and by our conversations I know he is with the Lord now and I am at peace.
