“ I would like to extend my condolences to the Richard family. I did not know Mr. Richard personally. I do know how sad of a time it can be to lose someone you love. I've found that drawing close to your family and friends really does ease the pain. Also, reflecting on your precious memories of them. Above all, though, I find much comfort from the Bible that holds out a hope of a time when we won't be experiencing sickness and death anymore. (Revelation 21: 3-5) It also tells us that we will see our loved ones who have left us once again. Each of you are in my sincere prayers. With Sympathy,
