“ I'll always remember Mr. Allen as a sweet and funny little Cajun man who loved hugs and kisses "on the lips" :) Having first met him over 20 years ago when I'd bought my home from him, I'd felt privileged to assist in his care when the time came for him to move into a long term care facility. I'll never forget how, even though suffering through his own illness, Mr. Allen had helped others in the facility ... offering love, kindness, compassion, and companionship. What a precious man. I hope all the sweet angels in heaven are offering Mr. Allen plenty of kisses "on the lips".
