

Anna Mae Simar Landry

March 3, 2009

Mrs. Landry passed away peacefully Saturday morning at St. Patrick's Hospital in Lake Charles, La. She was born in Lafayette, La to the late Bernard and Emily Sonnier Simar. Mrs. Landry was a retired United State Postal Worker. She loved to paint, attend church, and play with her grandchildren. She also enjoyed planting flowers and other plants to beautify her home and garden. Survivors include her daughters, Emma L. Strickland and husband Frosty of Jennings and Elana L. Richards and husband Buster of Evangeline; one brother, Thieran Simar and wife Manny of Evangeline; three grandchildren, Brett & Jacob Richards and Lana Strickland; two great grandchildren, Brayden & Kennedi Strickland; and numerous nieces and nephews. Preceded in death by her parents.

Tribute Wall

“ Anna Mae Simar Landry

January 28, 2023 at 04:12 PM

“ Emma and Alana,
I am sorry to hear of your mother's death. May you find comfort in knowing that she is in perfect health and happiness in the arms of her loving Father.

I will miss her kind smile and greetings when she would come to pick up the boys from school.

Brett and Jacob,

It will take a long time for the sadness to go and it may never go but it will get easier for you. You can find comfort in knowing that the two of you meant VERY much to your grandmother and she loved you SO! She is your special angel watching over you.

Cherie Sarradet Stanley - March 09, 2009 at 12:55 PM

“ Emma and Alana: I am so sorry about your mother's passing. I understand your pain. My mother's funeral was yesterday.

May God give you strength and comfort in the days ahead.

Carolyn C Delahoussaye - March 02, 2009 at 04:23 PM