

Arvie Albert Airhart

February 21, 1933 - May 30, 2015

Arvie Albert Airhart

Jennings: Arvie Albert Airhart of Reeves completed the final chapter of his life's work on Saturday, May 30, 2015 after 82 years. His journeys took him on adventures both domestic and abroad, but his last will be one of eternal peace. Albert retired from the Firestone Plant in Lake Charles after 33 years, but perhaps best known for his cherished and prized artwork, which is enjoyed around the world. Albert's life revolved around his greatest joy – his loving family. Perhaps among his most enjoyable times were those working with his family at their cattle ranch. Albert was comforted by his eldest son Russell, as he quietly and peacefully embarked on his final journey.

Albert is survived by two sons, Russell Airhart, his wife Gail of Reeves and Steven Airhart of Chicago, his grandchildren Michael Airhart (Chicago), Shawna Guidry and Kimberly Airhart and great grandchildren Gavon Guidry, Cassidy Rains, Brayden Airhart, all of Reeves and by his sister, Doris Ahrens of Reeves. He was preceded in death by his wife Nola LeBato Airhart and his son Kenneth Airhart. Albert lives on in his families and friends memories and the masterpieces of art he leaves behind. May the final pastures he walks, be with those who have passed before him and may we all one day be reunited.

His body will be available for visitation beginning Monday, June 1st at the Reeves Bible Church and his body will be laid to eternal rest at Creel Memorial Cemetery at Camp Pearl off Topsy Bell Road on Tuesday, June 02, 2015 at 11:00 AM. Services will be warmly officiated by Brother Glenn Ducharme.

“ I worked for many years with Albert and had almost forgotten about him. He was a great guy to be around. I always admired his great art talent. We were good friends at the Firestone plant. My prayers and sympathy to his family. So long old friend.
