“ Aunt Audrey and Uncle Bruce were very very special people to our family, especially my brother Ernest (Dusty) Hoffpaur. I have nothing but good happy memories of the both of them. They came to visit while I was living in Corpus Christi a few years ago. It made me feel so good that they could have gone a lots of places, but they came to visit me and my family. Then again not long before he found out he was sick, they drove to Dusty's near Waco and my sister Susan & I went also. We had such a good time laughing and went to an Indian Pow Wow. It was ccooolldddd. Ya'll remember the fat weinie dog "Cleo"? Long time back..Their spoiled baby. I know she is happy now that she is resting with the Love of her Life. I will truly miss them both...I am blessed to have had them in my life.
