

August Duplechan

May 14, 1957 - November 2, 2022

August Duplechan

Jennings: We feel extremely blessed and honored to have had the opportunity to have been inspired, taught, supported, cared for, and raised by Mr. August Duplechan, and privileged to help celebrate his life. Affectionately known by various monikers and terms of endearment, the most common of “Flip” and “PawPaw”, August Duplechan was a Godly man, a mentor, a mechanical genius, a proud soldier; he was above all an exemplary father and husband. He was a man who was genuinely and tirelessly devoted to his family until his final breath.

August Duplechan was born on May 14, 1957, in a small Louisiana town called Mermentau. He was the seventh child of eleven children born to Fletcher and Dorothy Duplechan.

August attended Jennings High School, and at the tender age of 17, driven by ambition and a sense of patriotism, volunteered to serve in the United States Armed Forces.

Following his military service, August met and married his best friend Carolyn Miles in Houston, TX, unto which they raised one son, Marlon Miles, and two daughters Eulavia Lindley (Robert), and Ashley Duplechan. One of his biggest accomplishments was being a father.

A man of many skills, there was no problem too big for August; from fixing any car, rescuing his family from a burning home, or building life size replicas of childhood vehicles for his grandkid's birthday parties; he was the go-to guy. He was Google before the internet. Jack of all trades doesn't begin to sum him up. However, it was the sense of protected love that he provided to anyone in his care which was his most natural asset.

Through the years, August enjoyed fishing, cooking for his family, and making friends wherever he went. August was authentically and wholeheartedly there for those in his life. He was a fiery spirit that if you met once, you'd never forget. His laugh and love will echo in our hearts and memories forever. The jewels that he crafted and left for this world will surely keep his name and legacy alive with pride.

August is survived by his best friend of 45 years, Carolyn Miles Duplechan of Houston, Texas; 3 daughters, Eulavia Lindley [Robert], Ashley Duplechan, & Darlene Mayfield, all of Houston, Texas. He is also survived by a brother Jerome Duplechan of Lake Arthur, La. and Margaret Duplechan of Mermentau, La. Surviving grandchildren are Kailib Bradford, Kenneth Bradford Jr, Rohan Lindley, Robyn Lindley, Robert J. Lindley, Demetria Mayfield, Zendrea Mayfield, Kadejah Mayfield, and Alexis Thomas. Great grandchildren are Karin Ubido, Kaizen Mayfield, Zakhi Mayfield, Zaylei Mayfield, Galal Kassim, Brielle Guillory.

August is preceded in death by his son, Marlon Miles; parents Fletcher Duplechan and Dorothy Davis Duplechan, brothers Fletcher Duplechan Jr, Harold Duplechan, Darrell Duplechan, Kenneth Duplechan, Greg Duplechan, Ronnie Duplechan, and sisters Mary Duplechan Mitchell, and Bridgett Duplechan.

Funeral Services will be held for August Duplechan at Matthews & Son Funeral Home in Jennings, LA on Saturday November 12, 2022, at 11:00 AM with Pastor Craig Sams, Sr. officiating. Burial will follow in the Silverwood Cemetery.
