Beatrice T. Comeaux

Beatrice "Bea" Trahan Comeaux, 97, of San Antonio, Texas, passed away with family by her side at Mystic Park Nursing Home on Sunday, February 3, 2019 at 7:41 PM. Arrangements will be entrusted to Matthews and Son Funeral Home in Lake Arthur. She will be laid to her final resting place at St Anthony Cemetery.

She was born September 7, 1921 in Lyons Point, Louisiana to the late Marcial and Azelia (Frugé) Trahan. The family later moved to Lake Arthur where Beatrice lived most of her life until eight years ago when she moved to San Antonio.

At the age of 17 she married her first husband the late Alton Matthews. The couple had one child, Sandra Matthews McCauley. After Matthews was killed in World War ii, Beatrice married Percy Comeaux in 1947. The couple together had one child, Brenda Comeaux Iglehart.

She was an alumna of Lake Arthur High School and worked as a sales clerk at McClean's grocery, Vee's 5 & 10, LaCour's and Tingo's most of her younger life. She was a faithful and active member of Our Lady of the Lake Catholic Church, the Catholic Daughters Organization, the Ladies' Alter Society and loved praying the rosary, dinner and dancing with her YaYa Sisters. Beatrice lived life to the fullest loving every individual she came in contact with. She enjoyed cooking, baking and praying over the sick as a "traiteur". She was blessed with a long healthy life, her smile and laugh brightened a room and she was the life of the party.
