“ I'll never forget the smell of her kitchen when she was baking. Her beautiful embroidered pillow cases, maybe some of her grand or great grandchildren will continue the art. Larry, Callie, Morgan and Jr. all thoses many years of phone calls, letters, (Larry, while you were in the service), and all-too-brief visits are priceless, frozen pictures in your minds. Maybe when your eyes quit stinging from the unstoppable flow of tears, you can look at those images, smile, and enjoy her all over again.

“ May she rest peacefully in heaven and have new sight to do her embroidering and a great big kitchen to bake her delicious cookies and cakes.
