“ Mawmaw would tell me that she loved kissing our necks as babies. She always wanted to kiss those cute little necks. She'd say stuff like "gimme that little neck!!" I'll miss her kisses and hugs forever.

Also I remember fondly growing up and hearing all of the grandchildren's feet slap against the linoleum tile kitchen floor when we would all run through to the bedrooms.
(We were not supposed to be running)

I love you all so much. You are all in my thoughts.

“ Taunte Betty liked telling the story of Scotty visiting with his parents. She would ask Scotty if he was hungry and he always said yes. His mom would fuss because they would eat before going to visit. Scotty absolutely thought she was the best cook in the whole world. He would brag about her cooking everywhere we lived. His childhood was a blessing because he got to hang out with his Aunt Betty, Uncle E.J., and his cousins.
