“ I met and befriended Jim when we worked together for Census 2000. He was a great guy and my tears and prayers are with his family and friends. Although I didn't know him well, it was clear that Jim was one of the good guys, a true American hero. He will be sadly missed.

“ I would just like to say that I am sorry about the loss of a very special man who meant the world to you his family and an Icon to us his students. I remember when I first met Mr. Linhart at Crowley middle school I do believe that I was in the 6th grade, I thought that he was a tough cookie but as I got to know him I still thought of him as a tough cookie, but I saw that he just wanted the best for his kids and he gave teaching his all and it showed. I use to talk in class all of the time and when I saw how red he was getting I stopped :) he was a very smart man. I have seen him a few times since I have grown up and he never forgot my name and I always was happy to see that he was still in good health and spirit. Now it saddens me to know that he is gone from this earthly setting and I rejoice to know that he is now with his heavenly father and mine. If I had one last chance to say something to Mr. Linhart it would be, thank you. Thank you for not letting up and making us believe in ourselves. May God continue to shield and comfort the Linhart family is my prayer...

“ Mr. Linhart was my eight grade math teacher, and I loved him dearly. Whenever he would teach us a new topic and we didn't fully understand the homework assignments. He would allow us to call him at his residence for some additional help. He was an excellent teacher, and eventually friend. My prayers are with his family. For knowing him like I did, I know this is a great loss. Blessings and Peace. Donovan

“ Wanda and Boyd,

I was shocked when Johnnie called me this morning to tell me about Jim's passing. I was so hoping to see him at a game in the near future. Maybe he and Daddy can get together and watch the games from Heaven now.

Your family will be in my prayers.

Love,

Ingrid and family
