I have known Bruce since we was in elementary school. Bruce never change in all these years. He was kind ,gentle, friendly person. Whenever I'm in town and see him .I would make it a point to stop & we talk. We were old school friends . I will miss seeing him now when I come to town. I didn't know the Saturday after Thanksgiving would be our last conversation between two old friends. God have plans for us all to come home, we just don't know when. R.I.P Bruce 🙏
