“ I am writing to express my deepest condolences at this time. I also wanted to share these scriptures that I often find to be encouraging. 2 Corinthians 1:3, 4 reminds us that through prayer 'the God of all comfort, comforts us in all our tribulation', and 1 Peter 5:7 tells us to 'throw all of your anxiety upon him [God], because he cares for you.' Please feel free to visit www.watchtower.org for more encouraging thoughts and scriptures. Your family has my sincere sympathy.

“ Julie, My deepest sympathy on your loss. Lynn was a special person that touched the lives and hearts of many people. Even though he is no longer with us on this earth, his memory will always be a part of each and everyone of us. We can have comfort that he has gone on to be in God's kindom and that God's love will help ease the pain of his loss. I will keep you and your family in my prayers.

“ Oh Julie and girls I cannot even imagine the grief that you all are going through right now. Corky is at work right now and will not be able to make it to the funeral. I know only time and prayers will help to heal your broken hearts right now. Lynn was such a good man and he loved you all so much. I am so glad we got to share his friendship. Corky and I will never forget Lynn. He is with his heavenly Father and not in pain anymore. We are praying for you and your family.

All our love & prayers, Corky & Rosalind
