

Burcy Miller Bergeaux

March 23, 2009

Mrs. Bergeaux passed away peacefully Saturday morning at the Jennings American Legion Hospital. She was born in Tee-Mamou to the late Ulysses and Azeline Pitre Miller. She retired from the La. South West State School in Iota. She continued to be a caregiver. She loved to cook, garden, sew, and loved to visit with people. No one was a stranger to her. Survivors include her two sons, Allen "Cowboy" Bergeaux and wife Latitia and Johnny Bergeaux all of Tee-Mamou; four daughters, Della Lantz and husband Ervin, Eva Breaux and husband Bud all of Sulphur, Shirley Granger and husband Joe, and Judy Landry and husband Belin all of Tee-Mamou; one brother, Elbey Miller and wife Velma of Evangeline; one sister, Margaret King of Sulphur; 39 grandchildren, 44 great grandchildren, & 11 great great grandchildren. Preceded in death by her parents; her loving husband, Alfred "Fred" Bergeaux; one son, Robert Lee "T-Boy" Bergeaux; two daughters, Jeanette Hearod and Audrey LaPoint; three grandchildren, Jacob Lantz, Jessica Lynn Saltzman, and Alexander Browne; two sisters, Della and Hazel Miller; and three brothers, Jesse, Sydney, and Florence Miller.

Tribute Wall

“ Burcy Miller Bergeaux

January 28, 2023 at 04:12 PM

“ Shirley, Allen and Family: You have my deepest sympathy---losing an uncle and your Mom in such a short time. As you know, my Mom (your Mom's roommate in room 30) went home to be with the Lord on February 25. I'll be praying for you and your families.

Carolyn Corbello Delahoussaye - March 21, 2009 at 01:50 PM