“ I will never forget the good times we had in the past with Calvin & Celes. Calvin was like a big brother to me when I was growing up. When I had a question, he's the one I would go to and he always had the right answer. I miss Celes. every day and I will truly miss Calvin. I pray they are together in heaven and both have eternal life with Jesus. Until we all meet again. I love you both..Lasley and Rena

Calvin was the youngest of his siblings and I was the first grandchild in the family. We were only 6 yrs apart. We grew up together in the same home and shared a most wonderful woman as a mother and a grandmother/mom. Although technically an uncle, he treated Anna and I as little sisters, trying to replace the father we had lost. I have lost an uncle and a brother. Oh the memories I have and as long as God allows me to have them they will be cherished. He has joined his parents, siblings and his beloved wife, Celes, now. May the angels greet him and may our Lord welcome him into paradise. Again, my condolences to Yvonne and family. May God grant you'll peace and comfort. I loved him so!! Betty Lacombe Vincent
