“ I want to send my deepest condolences to the family of Calvin LeGros. I am truly sorry for the lost your family is feeling and want you to know that God never intend for his family to experince the lost death brings. Know that during this time that God wants you to rely on him for comfort. (2 Corinthians 1: 3, 4) Another thing that can bring you much comfort is keeping the memory of Calvin alive in your minds and hearts.

“ I know it's been a long time Calvin (worked together at Culligan years ago), but you are still considered a dear friend of mine. I'll look you up when I come down to Louisiana again soon. Your son was born the year I moved up here.

You are in our prayers and we send our love.

“ The pain of losing someone you love is something that we will never get use to because God's Word refers to death as 'the last enemy.' May your family find comfort as I have in knowing that our loving heavenly Father promises us that very soon he will have our enemy 'brought to nothing.' (1Corinthians 15:26) What a wonderful day that will be!

“ I am truly sorry for your loss. Calvin was a really great person. I am truly blessed to have been able to spend time with him and get to know him before he was called to heaven. I just wish I would have got the chance to have meet him sooner and been able to spend more time with him. He is greatly missed.
