“ Where do you begin... Cat touched all of our lives in a very special way. Cat was a fixture in our family. From serving in our wedding and celebrating the birth of our boys. Cat had a smile you could count on and just enough attitude to make you laugh. There was never a question of our love for Cat and her love of life. She was as much apart of our family as she was to her own. We can never experience the loss or pain that her mom and dad and bother and sister are feeling, but know that your family is always in our heart and prayers. Cat will forever be part of our family and our memories. Her subtle laugh and smile will never be forgotten.
