“ I want to thank everyone for your words. They have all helped us through a long rough road through the last few years. But if you had the opportunity to meet my big brother Chad when he was here you would know. That the road is FAR from over. His memories and awesome personality will keep him in our hearts and stories for years to come. So if you really think about it, it is like he is still here. Next to you helping guide us through this tretious journey that we call life. And I can think of no two better guardian angels to have by my side than my big brother Chad Blayne Trahan and my DAD Melvin Joseph Welch. I love and miss you guys!!!!
