“ I wanted to extend my deepest sympathies for your family's loss. I have always found comfort in Revelation 21:4 “And he [God] will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will morning nor outcry nor pain be anymore.” Everyone who has lost a loved one looks forward to the time when no one will feel the sting of death. (1 Corinthians 15:55) If you would like more encouraging information to help in the grieving process, please visit www.watchtower.org. I hope that these scriptures may help you though this difficult time.

“ McDaniel family,

Our deepest prayers go out to all of you. It has been soooo many years since we would visit with all of you while spending the summer with grandma and grandpa Falcon. I remember many times spending the day with all of the girls playing games etc.... Chaco would come home and spend as much time with us as he would with his own children. We will always remember him as a kind and gentle man. God bless you all during this time of loss. I pray that you all have peace and understanding.
