“ I regret not being able to pay my respects to Winston & his family in person. I had the pleasure of knowing & working with Winston for many of his 30 years in law enforcement. He was always a professional & a gentleman in the way he conducted himself. I genuinely enjoyed my contact with him & wish that there were more people like him. He loved his family, his church & his community. His passing is such a loss to all who knew him. He was a fine man & will be missed!!!
