“ I remember Clay from 6th grade when I taught him. He was so sweet and kind to others. He was mild mannered and a joy to teach. I still use a koozie he gave me for Teacher Appreciation week and people still make comments about how cute it is. I guess that is why I would think about him often. Praying for comfort and peace for everyone who loved him, especial his family.

“ Clay was a happy and well-liked third grader at OLI. He was an excellent student and a pleasure to teach. I remember him as being calm when his classmates were "riled up" about this or that during recess. Always polite and had a smile for everyone. I am deeply saddened by his passing and offer his family my deepest sympathy and continued prayers. Go with God, Clay.

“ Oh, Clay, I cannot believe you are gone. My heart breaks for your family, for Casey. Clay was always the wiser one in a class of rowdy knuckleheads! He always got my sarcastic jokes when no one else did, and he and his buddy, Lance Lopez, kept me in stitches. Not a day went by that they didn't pull something on me or another classmate. RIP my dear boy; I will never forget you, and I have long been wondering about you, praying for you. I never forget! Now I can rest knowing you will no longer be fighting daily battles with those "things," that at times, overcame you. May you finally find peace at the end of that rainbow. Love you always and forever, Ms. Briggs
