“ My mother, Evelyn Broussard, was manager of the Zigler Hotel and Jeff Davis Country Club, and Curtis was her bartender and dear friend. I have fond memories of him, too. My mother is now 94 and in a care center here in Kerrville, TX, where Mike and I live. Her health is declining, so she and Curtis may be reunited in Heaven before too long. Our deepest sympathies are sent to you, Curtis' loving family. I pray that God will grant you comfort and peace, as well as joy from the wonderful memories you have to cherish. Curtis was, indeed, a wonderful man.
