“ Dale was and I will always remember him as one of the funniest characters I have even known. An often repeated conversation we had went something like Dale: "I can't believe its not in the mail" Me: "Dale, is it there?" D: "no" me: "whats not to believe?" D: "I know, but I just can't believe its not in the mail".. well Dale... I am now a mailman and I gotta tell you .. everything is in the mail. Annette, the loss of a loved one is never easy I wish you joy in the memories and peace in your heart.

“Uncle Dale!, Uncle Dale!, Uncle Dale!” He used to hate it when I called him that. I would always get a round of “Nephew Jonny!, Nephew Jonny!, Nephew Jonny!” back. I knew it drove him nuts and I did it anyway. I thought it was so funny. I have a lot of good memories of my Uncle Dale. He always seemed to be around a lot when I was younger. He had a deep love of music and we would talk about musicians and bands for hours sometimes. Especially back in the days I was playing in a band. Even after I was out on my own I would often receive calls from him. I also heard he was pretty darn good at Foosball, but never got to witness it. I kinda always wanted to see if he was actually any good. Most of all though, I thought it would be fun if one day we ended up jamming out together. He used to play drums and I play guitar. I guess that will have to wait until we meet again. Yesterday he was found to have passed away in his sleep. He left behind his wife of many years Annette and many other family members. Out of which my father stands out. I know my Dad loved his little brother very much and would always help him out when he could. Dale was a veteran, a good husband, and my uncle. You will be missed Uncle Dale.

And watch you as you sleep
I even place my arms around you
To calm you as you weep
I see you with the days away
Begging to have me home
So I try to send you signs
So you know you are not alone
Don't feel guilty that you have
Life that was denied to me
Heaven is truly beautiful
Just you wait and see.
