

Daniel "Danny" Daigle

Dan "Danny" Daigle A memorial honoring the life of Dan "Danny" Daigle, 58, will be held at a later date. Danny was called to heaven Wednesday morning from the Jennings Guest House. He worked as a salesman in the clothing industry. He had a fabulous key sense of fashion and all things beautiful. Danny enjoyed watching television and visiting with his friends. He was a wonderful, fun-loving person who will be greatly missed. Danny leaves behind to cherish his memories: Rick Breaux, his best friend and companion; one brother, Bill Daigle, Jr. of Lake Charles; and a great number of friends. “ I never forget Dan's quick wit and dry scense of humor. Working together at JCPenney we shared plenty of gripe sessions. You could count on him being in your corner in tough times. We'll all miss him...

“ Dan was always a fun person to be around. I can remember meeting Dan in the 1980's in Lake Charles and then again more recently when I returned to Louisiana again. Both times he was very friendly and full of life. Rest in Peace.
