“ A light in our family that we will dearly miss. I will forever remember your smile and the love you had for all of us just as much as we will always love you. Your resilience and bravery through your life was something to be admired and we should all hope to accept our lives as not a burden but a gift because you were certainly a gift to us. You are loved, you will be missed and you be looking for your special balloon on Good Friday when we have to say I love you from below or our prayers when we want to say hello. God speed cousin and may God rest you in his arms in comfort. I love you.
