Gone From My Sight*

*I am standing upon the seashore.
A ship at my side spreads his white sails to the morning breeze and starts
for the blue ocean.*

*He is an object of beauty and strength.
I stand and watch him until at length
he hangs like a speck of white cloud
just where the sea and sky come to mingle with each other.*

*Then, someone at my side says;
"There, he is gone!"*

*"Gone where?"
Gone from my sight. That is all.
He is just as large in mast and hull
and spar as he was when he left my side
and he is just as able to bear his load of living freight to his destined port.
His diminished size is in me, not in him.*

*And just at the moment when someone
at my side says, he is gone!
There are other eyes watching him coming,
and other voices ready to take up the glad shout;
"Here he comes!"*

And that is dying.

“ Hello Everyone,
so sorry that I could not join you to say farewell to David. I was blessed to have him as a brother and I will always treasure his memory. I am comforted by knowing that he is in a much better place.

Love your sis,
Doris
