“ So sorry to learn of Dennis. The Billodeaux family is always such a tender, special memory for me - great people, all. I couldn't have gotten thru high school without your mom. What a saint she was. Dennis was such a funny kid without a shy bone, as I recall? Kisses and hugs to each of you: Janell, Jerrilyn, Sharon, Mickey, Ronnie, and Craig. May God continue to shower you with many blessings, not the least of which is your closeness. I think Dennis will join the debate team in heaven.

“ Dennis, you were my best friend once upon a time...a time when it really mattered. You were always there, for me, for everyone. You gave so freely from your heart. You spread a little sunshine wherever you went! You were one of the most unselfish, accepting, and gentlest of hearts. You were unconditional. There are very few breeds of people who qualify to be in the best of the best of hearts like you. I've NEVER forgotten you. And I never will. I will always remember 8-track tapes and concerts and that blue VW van blasting Point Blank at the river as we unknowingly made memories that would last a lifetime. You were, are, the real deal. Honest. Real. Heart. Love. Friend. Laughter. Freedom. May you soar like an eagle by every bit of that rock-n-roll which filled your soul and placed you in the hearts of many, forever. Look up our old buddy Fox who flew that way just a few months ago. But I'll bet you guys have already hooked up and are soaking in the peace and tranquility of that rainbow we ALL so desperately sought to find. Pray for us who are still trudging along this obstacle course in this thing called life. Love you forever. And thanks for shining your light.
