“ Onesia, Pat & Tanya, I am so sorry to hear the news about Derrick. Gary brought the news to me last night. We both cried for him and you. Only God knows why he brings his children home. I pray that you all have the strength to keep going in this terrible time. We will miss him and remember all the wonderful things he did. I will always remember him with love, and how easily he smiled and loved life. I can't begin to understand the pain you are going through at this time. The saying goes: Time will heal all wounds, but how do you get over losing a child. I can't answer that, I will never understand that special bond between a Mother and her children the way you do. i pray that God guides your steps, and is giving you comfort, peace and understanding at this time.

If you need anything, a friend to cry with or just a shoulder to cry on, someone to listen. I am just a phone call away, at 281-554-5255 at home or my cell 281-630-7440. Know that I love you all. God bless you all!

Lots of Love, Brenda Lajara

“ I had met Derrick sometime in early high school and we spent a good bit of time together over the years following that. He was such a sweet, bright man and made it impossible for those around him to be anything but happy! He was an amazing individual and I feel so fortunate to have known him. My heart is with the Guidry and Broussard families, you are all so strong. I will pray that God can bring you peace during this difficult time.

“ To the Guidry family; Danielle and Jace Broussard:
My friends and I took a wrong turn and ended up on the scene of Derrick's tragic accident on Friday evening. I am truly sorry for the loss of Derrick. Although I did not know him, I felt that there was a reason for us to be there Friday. Many prayers are said for all of you at this very difficult time. Please give Derrick's puppy a hug from me, I was holding him as we waited for paramedics to arrive. It's a miracle that little baby pup survived. Danielle, you are a sweet girl, keep your chin up as much as you can, I will pray for you. Your little boy is so precious.. Lots of love, Quincie Privat~~Lafayette, Louisiana~~
