

Dora Mae Brown

June 1, 1933 - September 19, 2009

Dora Mae was born in Jennings, La to the late Joseph & Mary Clark Brown on June 1, 1933. She was a nurse's aide and loved taking care of anyone in need. She had a very loving and giving soul. Dora Mae often prayed for the sick and less fortunate so God may send them his blessing. She could often be heard quoting scriptures from the Bible. She was blessed with a beautiful voice and loved to sing. She also enjoyed cooking, collecting bells and elephants, and watching wrestling. Dora Mae will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved her. Leaving behind to cherish her memory is her beloved daughter, Karen Brown of Jennings; one sister, Celestine Rubin also of Jennings; and two grandchildren, Arnold Wade Charles, Jr and Anitra C. Allen both of Jennings Preceded in death by her parents, Joseph & Mary Clark Brown and one granddaughter, Altovise Charles.

“ I was so terribly saddened to hear of Dora's passing. Dora was, and still is, in my mind a wonderful and caring person. She was my rock when she was attending my mother Frances Shultz. Dora was so steady and patient, some one we all could learn from. My entire family has so much to thank Dora for. She will always shine bright in my mind. I can just see Josephine Gillard and my mother Frances smiling as Dora enters the gates of Heaven, reunited once more.

“ *Lynette and Celestine,
One of God's best has gone on to sing lead in the Heavenly choir. It is Dora's voice I hear every time I think of her, singing Gospel or always ready to talk with me. She was a good lady and I feel blessed and honored to have known her. Dora will be missed. You and your families are in my prayers. There is no doubt Dora is receiving her just rewards in Heaven.*

*Love,
Angie*
