Dorothy Cormier

Our beloved mother Dorothy Vincent Cormier passed away at the age of 101 on January 6 in Houston, Texas. She was a long-time resident of Jennings until she moved to Houston to live with her daughter. She is preceded in death by her parents Whitney and Adelia Vincent, her husband Joseph Cormier, son Patrick Cormier, and daughter Thelma Jean LeBlanc.

She leaves to mourn her two daughters, Jeanette Simpson (John) and Theresa Kendrick (Thomas), and son Kirk Cormier (Dana). She is also survived by many grandchildren and great grandchildren, many of whom loved to listen to her stories from the past.

Dorothy loved to sew, quilt, crochet, and read. She was very devoted to her church and until the very last week of her life, she followed the mass on television daily and recited the rosary as well.

In the last year, Dorothy longed to return to her home in Jennings. She will be returning now and will be laid to rest next to her husband.

A Mass of Christian burial will be held at Immaculate Conception Catholic Church on Friday, January 13, 2023, at 10:00 AM. Interment will immediately follow in Calvary Cemetery.
