“ Dorothy is our family's favorite cousin. When we were little and our Dad, Elray, Uncle Elie's brother, was sick with cancer, Uncle Elie would come over almost every day to see our Dad. He would always pay special attention to us and bring us fruit and candy. After Dad died, he continued to check on us. Dorothy continued that with us too. She always made sure we stayed connected with the family. We loved the stories Dorothy would tell us and her sense of humor was outrageous. She laughed at everything like our brother, Andrus. Dorothy and Andrus were very close, like brother and sister. She could make everything funny and when things were hard, she wasn't afraid to cry with us. We will miss her a lot and she will always be in our hearts.

“ Dorothy will surely be missed, she had a contagious laugh like no one I have ever heard. She was always so nice and FUN. We love and will miss you Dorothy.
