“ Growing up next door to one of my dearest friends, Patti, I spent ALOT of time with Maw Maw Dot and the rest of the family. I remember oh so well the smell of homemade rolls clear down the road. She would tell Patti to come and get me, but from the smell, if the breeze was blowing the right way, there was no way I was missing Maw Maw Dots hm bread. We'd have it with cane syrup. Living so close to them was a memory I'll treasure forever. Rest in peace MS. Dot, and know that you were and will always be truly loved! I started crying last night and just can't stop. I will always love you! ❤️❤️❤️❤️
