“ Drusilla and I first met while her Sarah and my Sara were cheerleaders together. We spent many times in the bleachers and behind the scenes doing fund raisers for our girls. But it was this past April that we became closer as she gave me encouraging words during the illness and loss of my mother. I will forever remember her for that as she didn't even know my mother but helped me through a very difficult time. We should all learn from Drusilla. You will be missed my friend.
