“ *LeAnn and Craig,
I am deeply sorry for the loss of your beautiful son Dustin. He and I met a little over two years ago in Minnesota, he grew to be a dear friend to me, and many others. He has touched the hearts of many. His adorable laugh, witty sense of humor, and great friendship will be missed. Dustin's, and your new found Minnesota family send our prayers.
God bless.*

“ *Leann, my heart is broken for you and your family. I did not know Dustin but remember so well your speaking of him as he grew up. You are such a kind and special person and I feel that being your son he was probably very much like you. Although our grief is overwhelming at losing our loved ones in this life, knowing they are at peace becomes somewhat of a comfort as we move forward. My thoughts and prayers are with you all. I pray that God will lend you strength at this time of great sadness.
In sympathy, Molly Roe Thibodeaux*

“ *Lee Ann, Aimee and family, my thoughts and prayers are with you all. I remember Dustin years ago hanging out with Caroline. He was such a nice guy! Lee Ann, Rick thought the world of you as does the rest of my family, so I truly believe your beautiful son will have a warm welcoming committee until we are all reunited again.
