“ Earl, I’m so thankful for the last 7 years you have been in my life, from our long talks to our funny jokes, you always made sure to make me smile. You never made me feel like a step child, you treated me as your own and I’m forever grateful for it. Every time you were ready to leave, you’d always tell me, “I’ll dance at your wedding, baby girl,” well Earl, I pray you’re dancing in the sky, and I promise you’ll still get that dance. I love you, and miss you.
- Your baby girl, Natali. (Step Daughter). 💙

“ Earl was one of the best people you could ever ask to be around. Always laid back and easy going, would make you feel like work wasn't really work, well unless you was passing under the Vicksburg bridge then it was 3 or 4 cigarettes smoking at the same time Earl! Lol I'll miss this man, Heaven has gained a truly great person. Love you bud!
