Earline Ada Marceaux was born in Gueydan, LA on December 28, 1934, to the late Mr. Wilmer Harrington of Gueydan, LA and Mrs. Hazel Michon Harrington of Morse, LA. A truly special woman whose smile could light up a room. She had a gentle spirit, warm heart and a gift for making everyone feel welcome and loved. She had the gift of making everyone around her feel valued and cherished. She found great joy in art and painting, expressing her appreciation for the beauty of God's creation. She had a deep love of nature and could often be found tending her garden and nurturing her flowers and plants, those of whom she named affectionately after her favorite saints. She would also quietly enjoy the sights and sounds of the outdoors. She especially loved birdwatching and took delight in the simple beauty of the birds that visited her garden. Family was at the center of her life. One of her favorite things was celebrating the people she loved. She lovingly baked birthday cakes for her children, grandchildren and family members, making each occasion special with her thoughtfulness. Memories in her kitchen of decorating Christmas cookies and making her 8-hour tarts will be treasured forever. Above all Earline was a woman of profound faith and devotion. A proud Catholic throughout her life, she found strength, peace and purpose in her relationship with God. She faithfully prayed the Rosary every day, always keeping others in her prayers and never leaving anyone out. She was a devoted member of her parish, sang joyfully in the church choir, taught catechism classes with patience and love and regularly attended Holy Hour in prayer and adoration. Ms. Earline leaves behind a legacy of faith, love, and selflessness. A beloved wife, mother and grandmother whose memory will be cherished in the hearts of those who knew her.

Ms. Earline is survived by her children, Derran Marceaux (Tina) and Kathy Martin (Kenneth); her grandchildren, Nina Bergquist (Dwight), Seth Marceaux, Carl "TC" Marceaux, and Mia Marceaux; great grandchildren, Alexa Loera, Kami Marceaux, Easton Marceaux; her sister, Jeanette Broussard (Pookie).
