“ My heartfelt sympathy goes out to Henrietta and her family. I have plenty of loving memories with Mrs. Edna Mae, from a young child to adulthood. My mother and she were best friends. We lost touch a couple years after my mother's passing and my family was deeply sadden to just find out about Mrs. Edna's passing. Henrietta, you and your family will be in out prayers, love ya, 'll

“ I have so many memories of Ms. Edna, I worked with her daughter Henrietta for years. She would call the job and talk too me for a long time, now I can't say all what she said, if you know what I mean. Lol. She never got around d to sending me that check she promised me either. Lmao, she will be missed.

“ Edna Mae helped me in so many ways. Until the last few years of her life, I could call her day or night, she would be there. I entrusted her to care for our daughter while I traveled to the Middle East . She called me "Dirty Sally" from a t v series back then . I cooked and messed up every dish in kitchen, she cleaned. Thus my nickname and it stuck. I have a book of memories if Her daughter would like to talk about them, please call me. Or go to Facebook page. Would love to talk to you. She will Be greatly missed , David and myself are both seeing cancer specialist and I have surgery on the 16 th so I won't be able to come to services but you are in our hearts and prayers.
