“ I met Ms. Elsie on a Monday some years ago. She came faithfully to the rosary and communion service at the JDLC. She was devoted to her faith, family and friends as far as I could tell. She always prayed for her dear family and enjoyed the music and activities at the Living Center. Last year has been tough for her and she appeared ready to have her burdens over and meet the Lord. I was happy to have known her. There's a part of me that will always remember the "character" who made me laugh and who, in her own way, was preparing the way for others. Let perpetual light shine upon her. I extend my sincere sympathies to her family. I trust you will tell her stories to those precious grandchildren and great grandchildren.

“ I have so enjoyed knowing Elsie. I remember her from many years back before she and Mr. Claude entered the nursing home. These years since I retired and helped with the singalong I have gotten to know her better. She will be missed. One of her favorite songs was "Blessed Assurance, Jesus is mine." I am glad that she had that assurance that she was a child of God. Condolences to her family.
