

Evelyn Wall

August 12, 1926 - April 1, 2015

Evelyn Moore Wall

Jennings: On April 1st, 2015, after 88 years, Evelyn Moore Wall entered the sweet Beulah Land she had sung of for so long. Her family and friends mourn the loss of such a kindhearted and loving woman, but thank God that she now rests in her heavenly home.

Born on August 12, 1926 in Biltmore, North Carolina, Evelyn was the youngest of Luther and Jennie Spearman Moore's eleven children. She spent her youth in Fountain Inn, South Carolina, and after finishing high school moved to Natchez, Mississippi, where she worked for the Maranatha Mission Board and later attended Millsaps College. It was also in Natchez that Evelyn met her life-long love, Kenneth Wall, whom she married soon afterward. The two spent fifty-seven beautiful years together until his death in 2007. They dedicated their lives to serving in pastoral ministry at churches in Nebo, Winfield, Jennings, Church Point, and Lake Charles. Upon retirement, they enjoyed traveling around the country in their Airstream camper.

Evelyn will be remembered as a caring person, devoted wife, loving mom, doting grandmother, gifted musician, follower of Christ, and a woman with a sweet spirit and a sweet tooth. Her husband lovingly referred to her as the ideal pastor's wife. She sang beautifully, was an accomplished pianist, and worked as a church secretary. She also ministered to others unselfishly and supported her husband throughout every aspect of his church work. She taught piano for many years and leaves as part of her legacy students who still play today. She loved to cook for her family, and prepared the fried quail better than anyone on the planet. Her favorite role in life was that of raising her three boys, and then becoming "Granny" to their children.

She is survived by her sons, Kenny Wall of Highlands, North Carolina, Keith Wall and wife Marcia of Jennings, and Kyle Wall and wife Melanie of Virginia Beach, Virginia; four grandchildren, Andrew Wall and wife Hallie of New Orleans, La., Katherine Wall of Jennings, and Emily and Olivia Wall of Virginia Beach, Va.

Her parents, all of her brothers and sisters, and her husband, Rev. Kenneth F. Wall, preceded her in death.

Pallbearers will be her three sons and her only grandson; Jr. Cormier, and Kevin Hunt.

The family would like to express thanks to the staff of Camelot Brookside Nursing Home for the care given to Mrs. Evelyn, and especially to Jamie, her "Rose."

Funeral services will be held at Matthews and Son Funeral Home in Jennings, La. on Saturday, April 4, 2015 at 10:30 a.m., officiated by Reverend Kyle Wall. Burial will follow in Greenwood Cemetery. Visitation will be held at Matthews & Son Funeral Home in Jennings on Friday, April 3rd from 5:30 PM until 9:00 PM.

She brought me on my first door to door visitation sharing the gospel. I've never forgotten that. Could sing an play the piano like an Angel. Sweet spirit. We loved them an will never forget the influence they had on our lives. Will see them again in Heaven.

“ To the family of Evelyn Moore Wall:

We are thinking about you all and praying for grace and strength for you as you say your last goodbyes to our dear friend, Evelyn.

She and Ken were visiting the seminary at a Christian School in Chattanooga when we were students there. Chris and I were to be married that weekend and Ken and Evelyn agreed to stay and for Evelyn to sing at our our wedding. She did a beautiful job as always.

Among the many things she did when I was a high school student in Natchez was to teach me note by note how to harmonize a hymn. She was so patient and kind and had a loving spirit. We all admired this lovely Christian lady who had such a great influence on our lives. We cherish her memory.

The Lord make his face to shine upon each one of you.

Heaven's gain and earths' lost! What a precious and godly woman she was. Just a few weels ago, I listen to a tape of she and I singing in 1969 at Calvary Baptist Church. The name of the song was "I Believe in a Hill Called Mount Calvary". he had such a beautiful voice. I know heaven's choir is tremenously blessed - Nick Hunt - April 2, 2015

Evelyn lived her life for the Lord and for others. She was a great example of a Christian lady. She was very hospitable and caring. She will be missed.

Kyle, your mom suggested Liberty for Suzanne.

Then she laughed and said, "They will probably meet and marry someone from another state." And that is what happened.
