“ I had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Fred four years ago when my daughter moved to Lafayette. His stories of the Korean War that he fought in were astounding and gratifying that we have our freedom because of this brave man. I am grateful for the kindness he bestowed upon my daughter, Cammie. RIP sir! We appreciate your bravery and courage you endured to give us our freedom.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Uncle Fred was so kind to my kids and me. He always called me Carrot Head. Wonder if he knew my real name? I was privileged to own one of his swings. That thing lasted many years.
