“ I recall very happy days from back then. Gary was always a happy person, and he and Brenda were soulmates for sure. Recall back then when everyone would visit the old Bluebird ice cream deli that Doc and Bernice Dugas ran on Main Street. Brenda and Gary and many others would dance to the old jukebox dance floor in the back. Good times and memories of Gary, Brenda my sister Judy and others. Some great memories of that era for sure.
Rest in peace, Gary!

“ Gary and I went to school together, graduated the same year and then many years later, I worked with him at the Superior Gas Plant. He was a good singer and dancer at the old Boy Scout dances. I enjoyed working with him and I never knew of anyone who did not consider him a friend and had much respect for him.
