“ I have so many memories of my brother. From our childhood where he was pushing me on my schooler and accidentally went off the road and I went flying into the ditch. Or our teen years when we snuck out of town and almost died in the interstate when he sandwiched himself between two 18 wheelers. Or even our adult lives when he tried to light a fire and set himself on fire. Or when we would stand outside for hours telling stories and making each other laugh for hours. And just Like that pimpy our story ends. You weren't supposed to leave me without saying goodbye so I could tell you how much I love you and thank you for protecting me when I was a little girl and you was all I had. But I was happy to be with you. I knew you wouldn't let anyone hurt me. I'm sorry I wasn't a better sister for you in your sickly days. I'm sorry I didn't see this coming. But I made you a promise, and I'll stand behind that promise as long as I have air in my lungs. Rest easy brother. Tell mom and dad I love them so much and miss them more than words can describe. I'll look after your family. You go make room for us, and keep mom and dad from fighting 🙏

“ I remember the first time I talked to Greg Cindy was trying to set us up and he was being rude to someone and I said something about it we butted heads and said each other was a jerk and told her no she didn't give and stuck us on the phone together again a little while later he was so sweet that time we talked over four hours that night and we both fell in love with each other over the phone it was amazing we hadn't even actually met yet and we knew that we were in love
