“ To my friend Fran, I can't imagine how hard this must be for you. I have been very close to you and Greg and know better than anyone how happy you guys were. Yall were always together like best friends. I know. You took care of him and you can be at peace with yourself. You did everything you could to make his life happy and well.you carried out his wishes exactly like he asked of you. It will be lonely for you but remember I'm always here.you ask him if there was any way he could comfort u from heaven to do so. I pray he will love you! Keep your head up he would have wanted that love you bunches Cindy

“ *It was with a great sense of loss when I heard of Gregory's death. I wanted to let you know that you have my greatest sympathy, and my heart is truly saddened.
I know that his passing will not only leave a void in our lives, but in the hearts of all those who knew him.
Gregory will always remain within our hearts, and I have included your family in my daily prayers. May God give you strength.
My sincere thoughts and prayers are with you.
With my deepest sympathy,
Daniel Richard*
