“ Guy Ryan Lopez

“ I met Guy when he was a member of our senior religion group about 10-11 years ago. He was instantly likable and full of life! He put a spark in our group and encouraged the other members of the group. I don't think he ever met a stranger. Whenever I saw him after, he always paused to say hello to Joel and I. A visit with Guy meant laughter and walking away with a good feeling. His passing is a great grief to us and we pray earnestly for all who knew and loved him. Our faith tells us that Guy has met God face to face and because I know Guy believed in God, I know God's mercy has enveloped him and prepared him for his eternal home. He'll be missed. Our sincere sympathies to his family and all who grieve his passing.

I know I haven't seen him or the family for quite some time, but I also know we were very close. He has a very special family in deed! He will be missed by all that knew him. “ I am truly heartbroken to hear of Guy's passing. We got to know him quite well a few years ago. His infectious laughter and comical ways always put a smile on my face. I chatted with him in May and he still made me laugh. He will truly be missed.

“ I met Guy when he joined our senior religion class. He was full of life and fun. He enjoyed coming to our home and we enjoyed having him. He would bring up ideas or points of view that perhaps the others were hesitant to do. Joel and I are shocked at his passing so young. We want to express our deepest sympathies to all who knew and loved him.
