“ He was my Paran. Uncle Harold was a good Godfather to me. I am Deb's little brother. I have nice memories of staying with them in Texas. He and Aunt Wanda took good care of me as I had fun playing with their toddlers Shane and Corey. I also enjoyed the time I spent with Aunt Wanda's little brother Dwight who was close to my age, almost teenage. I especially remember a very hot day that we spent all afternoon playing Monopoly inside their cool air-conditioned house. Paran was very giving. He put together a big gorgeous green Ford Mustang model that would roll and had hinges where everything opened. I treasured it for a long time as I took care of my things. I thank God for having him in my life. I am 57 now and I can hear him saying hey boy you catching up with me. I pray him to heaven and all of the family are in my prayer. Love, nephew & godchild, Blaine

“ *My Uncle Harold, or 'Kittan' as we used to call him when we were very young was such a fun person. He was only 9 years older than me so he was like a big brother to me. Me and my sister Dee spent many summers at Maw Maw's and we pestered him south, but he loved it, and he loved to kid around and pick at us. We always looked forward to those visits. Once he got older and fell in love with the most beautiful and wonderful person, Wanda, he refused to let us call him Kittan because it sounded too childish. We were blessed to have him in our lives. My prayers are with you Aunt Wanda, Corey and Shane, and all the little ones. From his oldest niece.
