“ *I read of a man who stood to speak at the funeral of a friend. He referred to the dates on the tombstone from the beginning to the end. He noted that the first came the date of birth and spoke of the following dates with tears, but he said what mattered most of all was the dash between those years. For that dash represents all the time that they spent alive on earth. And now only those who loved them know what that little line is worth. For it steers not, how much we own, the cars, the house, the cash. What matters most is how we live and live as how we spend our dash. So think about this long and hard. Are the things you'd like to change? For you never know how much time is left that still can be rearranged. Today is Harold's birthday. I will miss him so very much. We texted each other everyday with pictures and the news of the day. He was the best and I am so glad that I have lots and lots of good memories with him. May you rest in peace. Love you. “ Dear Audrey...Dave and I will always cherish the last Christmas Harold and you spent with us and our family...it was the last time Dave's brother and sisters were all together. We all had a great time sharing old times...good food..gifts that met a lot to everyone and many funny movies Katie picked out. We especially enjoyed letting our grand kids meet their Uncle Harold and Aunt Audrey ...wish the last 5 could have met you both....they would have loved you as much as we do. Jen and Jeff's twin girls Jyanna and Jordyn would have really had Harold in stitches as would their son JD. Pete and Renee's Maddy and Jayden were the two who met you...Violet and Drue will never know their Uncle and Aunt only in the stories we keep in our hearts and share on our get togethers . Rest in Peace dear brother...brother-in -law...uncle..and great-uncle. Love you forever❤️

“ *Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there. I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glints on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush
I am the swift uplifting rush*

*Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry;
I am no there. I did not die.
-Mary Elizabeth Frye*

I have such fond memories of my visit to Texas. I had a lovely time and will miss you Uncle Harold, thanks for the memories.

Aunt Audrey, my deepest condolences for your loss, there really aren't words. Thank you for sharing your home with me, I'll never forget our late night chat.

*All my heart
Jen*

My heartfelt sympathy to Mrs. Audrey and all of the family.

*Eternal rest, grant unto him O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon him.
May he rest in peace. Amen.*

May his soul and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.
