“ I wanted to extend my deepest sympathies for your family's loss. I have always found comfort in Revelation 21:4 “And he [God] will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will morning nor outcry nor pain be anymore.” Everyone who has lost a loved one looks forward to the time when no one will feel the sting of death. (1 Corinthians 15:55) If you would like more encouraging information to help in the grieving process, please visit www.watchtower.org. I hope that these scriptures may help you though this difficult time.

“ I had planned to visit with Harriet on Wednesday and here it is 3:30 on Monday and just getting to my computer to check emails. I really feel very sad about not being there for Ronnie, family, and friends. I send my love and prayers to all of you because I know you will miss Harriet.

Harriet never met a stranger and she was one of the most welcoming, caring, and sincere person I know. I will always treasure our last reunion and the time we shared. Haven't been to Gueydan very often in the last months and when I delivered our Reunion book Harriet was not feeling well so decided my visit might be too taxing. I have missed her send off, but Harriet and I will have a chat tonight about how I will miss her and my heart is full of gratitude for the times and the life experiences we shared...I know she will hear because she will not be in pain and Harriet is where she can get her deserved reward for living her life SO well. Her life and her early death fills me with the message that "let us not wait to do our "bucket list" that is things we always wanted to do AND let us not miss opportunities to say Hello and visit each in everyway possible and often as possible.
