Coon-ass and roughneck born and raised, Harry Lee Romero, passed away on Thursday, May 16, 2024, in Crowley, Louisiana.

Harry was born in Gueydan, La. but raised in Mermentau, Louisiana. He spent the majority of his life in Estherwood where he never met a stranger, fished every pond around, and hunted everyone's lease. At the young age of 20, he began his life-long career in the oil field as a roughneck around Louisiana. He traveled every back road during his working years and loved to tell everyone about it.

After retirement, Harry lived his best life with his traveling buddy, Jack Daniel Romero. He would be found running the back roads with his best fur friend, drinking coffee in Midland, fishing, listening to French music and shooting the bull with whoever would listen to his stories.

Harry is survived by his wife of 48 years, Sue Romero. His four children:

Seven grandchildren which of whom he adored: Devon Trahan and Chloe Jones, Madisen Trahan, Gillian McBride, Austen Landry, Gracie Landry, and Pyper Trahan. Two great-grandchildren that he was so incredibly proud of: Audrey Trahan and Ozzy Lee Matthews.
